Title of good practice
The Stavros Niarchos Foundation (SNF) Artist Fellowship Program, ARTWORKS
Brief description (including what level: local/national/European)
Since 2018, ARTWORKS has financially supported 310 individuals, mainly artists but also curators to encourage them to develop their creative practice. To qualify for the award, the candidates should be working in the visual arts (painting, sculpture, printmaking, photography, installations, performance, video art, multimedia, new media, digital art), in moving images (directors, screenwriters, producers for fiction, documentary, animation films), in dance (performance and/or choreography) or curating.
Objectives, learning approach, methods, topics used in the training/program, target group
Each Fellow receives the award of 8.000€ and is part of the SNF Artist Fellowship program for a period of eight months. During the Program, ARTWORKS will organize lectures, seminars and workshops, group visits to galleries and museums, studio visits, mentoring sessions, and other skill-sharing events. The Fellows engaged in the Program are required to report twice on the development of their practice. By encouraging the active participation of the awardees, ARTWORKS creates a framework of dialogue and mutual support. After the completion of the Program, the nominated Fellows are eligible to apply for residency programs outside Greece such as the International Studio & Curatorial Program (ISCP) in New York, Delfina Foundation in London, SAHA Association in Istanbul, and K3 Tanzplan in Hamburg. Their participation in these programs aims to provide them with stimuli and experiences that will help them to develop their research and practice and expand their network of contacts internationally.
